Date of transcription 09/16/2002

On 09/17/2001, six days after the terrorist events of 09/11/2001, SAs [redacted] and [redacted] interviewed [redacted] 100 Manhattan Avenue, [redacted] Union City, New Jersey. [redacted] had previously telephoned the Newark FBI and indicated that he had photographs prior to the explosions at the World Trade Center.

b6
b7C

The above-referenced agents retrieved the photographs from [redacted] at his residence, however, upon review, the photos appeared to be taken around the time of the collapse of the first tower, not prior to the attack.

While in the apartment building, the interviewing agents were advised by security to speak to another tenant who might have knowledge of the event. Neither agent is able to recall the name of the woman at present.

The interviewing agents spoke with the referenced woman who provided no additional information. After determining that the woman could provide no relevant information, the agents thanked her for her time and proceeded to leave. The woman accompanied the agents to the elevator on her floor.

While waiting for the elevator, the agents noticed a drawing, approximately eye level, on the wall near the elevator call buttons. The drawing appeared to depict the World Trade Center towers. This was evident by the shape of the buildings depicted, with one tower bearing a large antenna at the top. There was no evidence indicating how long the drawing had been there.

ה"הוביט", ספרו הנודע של ג'ון רונלד רעואל טולקין תורגם לרוב שפות התרבות וקראו אותו, מאז נכתב בשנת 1936, מאות מיליוני בני-אדם ברחבי העולם. לראשונה ראה ה"הוביט" אור בעברית לפני כשנה (בתרגומו של משה הנועמי). תרגום עברי חדש זה של ה"הוביט" שונה מכל התרגומים האחרים לשפות השונות שנעשו לו עד כה. אחראים לו לא מתרגם מקצועי, שזו מלאכתו, אלא חבורה של טייסי חיל-האוויר הישראלי שנפלו בשבי המצרים וישבו בכלא עבסייה שבקהיר בין השנים 1970-1973.

ראשיתה של הרפתקה אינטלקטואלית סוחפת ומרגשת זו היתה כמעט מקרית. באחד הימים, כשמונה חדשים לאחר הנפילה בשבי, קיבל טייס חיל-האוויר השבוי מאחיו, ששהה אז בארצות-הברית, ספר בכריכה רכה ובו סיפור קורותיו של יצור מוזר וחביב, שחור-שלום וחיים טובים ונוחים שנקלע כמעט בעל-כרחו להרפתקאות מסמרות-שיער במלחמה למען עולם שלו וירוק יותר. העלילה המקסימה, וביחוד הלשון הנפלאה, המשעשעת והשופעת דמיון והמצאות מילוליות של המחבר, שבו את לבם של הטייסים שקראו את הספר בזה אחר זה. את מלאכת תרגום הספר לעברית התחילו בלי שהחליטו על כך, בהיסח-הדעת. תחילה ניסו למצוא או להמציא מלים מקבילות בעברית למלים האנגליות ולמשחקיה-מלים של טולקין. אחר-כך רשמו את המצאותיהם ועד מהרה נסחפו לתרגום שיטתי ועקבי של הספר כולו. במשך ארבעה חדשים עמלו הטייסים וחבריהם השבויים, כמה שעות ביום, יום יום, על התרגום. העבודה התנהלה במסגרת בדוקה וקבועה, ונעשתה לרוב בזוגות. אחד מן השניים היה קורא בקול מן הספר ומתרגמו מילולית לעברית, תוך נסיונות ראשוניים של סיגנון וליטוש. כאשר התעוררו בעיות או קשיים היו מתכנסים כל המתרגמים למעין מועצה, שדנה החליטה ואישרה. מהטייטה הראשונה נכתב הספר מחדש בעברית תקינה ומסוגנת ועבר עוד כמה וכמה ליטושים עד שנמצא נוסח סופי, שהיה מקובל על דעת הכל. השירים הרבים שבספר היוו בעיה נפרדת לתרגום. אותם הריקו לעברית בעבודת-יצוות מלאה כל הישראלים שישבו בכלא.

100 חורפים

מיכל שלו

מאת: מיכל שלו

עריכה: מיכל שלו

זמורה
ביתן

היא סאגה משפחתית רבת יריעה
שתחילתה בחורף שנת 1883 באחוזת
ההון הנריד מבוסק שבבעלות כולין,
וסופה במל אביב של סוף המאה העשרים.

100
חורפים

בבוקר חורפי אחד יוצאת פאני המשרתת ליער ומצאת
שם נער מנטל על האדמה הלחה. בין הנער לפאני
ברקחה מערכת יחסים שהיא תחילתה של שושלת
משפחתית ענפה. מפאן והלאה נסחר הקורא לעקב אחר גיבורי הסיפור, שאובנים אחד – וכל אחד לחוד
– מארג סבוך של נטישות פואמות ואהבות ששורדות
גם אחרי הסערה.

מאת: חורפים הוא גם סיפורו של תקופה, גם פאני
הכוסן, עוברו במקביל לתחנות הייחום גם תחנות
היסטוריות רבות השיבות החל במלוי האנטשמות
באירופה של תחילת המאה ה-20 דרך נלגית הסצום
ונלחמת העולם השנייה ועד ההגירה לארצות הברית
והחיים במדינת ישראל למודת המלחמות.

מיכל שלו, מחברת רבת המכר מלאכני עליון
ושבועת החל, עושה זאת שוב. מד חסומה ואהבת
היא משרטטת דמויות השנויות דווקא בסיפור עלילה
שכולו מלאכת מחשבת.

(u) (S) The presence of overwriting, the limited nature of the text, and the limited amount of comparable writing prevents a definite reading of the beginning of the text on the bottom of Q1.3 (_ooM NY). Nor could it be determined whether the same writer(s) prepared the text throughout the Q1 notebook. However, it should be noted that one "B" letter formation was found on Q1.5 that appears similar to the indecipherable text on Q1.3. Five (5) printed enlargements of this portion of writing are enclosed for your investigative assistance.

(u) (S) Indented writing was observed on Q1.2. Two (2) copies of this text are enclosed for your investigative assistance. No indented writing was observed on Q1.3.

Background to the investigation: ~~(S/OC/NF)~~ (u)

On September 11, 2001, numerous complaints received by FBI-NK revealed that several individuals had been observed celebrating following the initial crash of an aircraft into the Twin Towers. T-1, a resident of Union City, NJ, advised that at approximately 9:00 am, T-1's neighbor, T-2, called T-1 on the telephone to tell T-1 that T-2 saw smoke coming from the WTC. In order to see the WTC more closely, T-1 used 7x33mm (likely 7x35mm) power binoculars to view the scene from the rear window of T-1's apartment. While looking in the direction of the World Trade Center (WTC), T-1 observed three (3) males kneeling on the roof of a white van located in the rear parking lot of T-1's apartment complex. It appeared as though they noticed T-1 as well. ~~(S/OC/NF)~~ (u)

T-1 described the males as white, mid-twenties, no facial hair, no glasses, "clean-cut," no hats, all wearing short sleeves, with lean builds. Other identifying data was also provided. T-1 described the white van as a "box"-style van which (u)

~~SECRET/ORCON/NOFORN~~

had no windows on the side; it reminded T-1 of a telephone company van. (~~S/OC/NF~~) (u)

According to T-1, one of the males appeared to be taking still photographs and video of the other males with the WTC in the background. All of the males appeared to be jovial in that they smiled, hugged one another, and gave "high fives." (See attached photos). As the vehicle later left that area, T-1 recorded the license plate as JRJ-13Y. Later that day when T-1's spouse returned home, T-1 provided the police with the information pertaining to the males. (~~S/OC/NF~~) (u)

Another complaint received by FBI-NK revealed a second eyewitness who reported having observed a white van in the same parking lot as described by T-1. This eyewitness, however, observed the van in the parking lot as early as 8:00am on the morning of the explosions at WTC. (~~S/OC/NF~~) (u)

A third complainant later reported having seen, on September 11, 2001 (time not noted), a "big, white, model 2000 Chevrolet van, or possibly panel truck or U-Haul truck, bearing the words "Urban Movers" in black lettering along the side. The vehicle was observed in the Liberty State Park's Marine Terminal in Jersey City, NJ, located across the Hudson River from WTC. (~~S/OC/NF~~) (u)

Pursuant to this information, East Rutherford, NJ police authorities stopped an Urban Moving Systems van at a pre-positioned roadblock. The van, occupied by males similar to those described by witnesses, was traveling eastbound along State Route 3 in New Jersey. Following the stop, the police detained five (5) individuals, all believed to be Israeli Nationals, on the grounds that they may have possessed information pertaining to the WTC explosions. The matter was later forwarded to FBI-NK for further investigation. The individuals were detained for questioning and later held for violations of their immigration status. (~~S/OC/NF~~) (u)

A search of the van and individuals was conducted at the time of the vehicle stop. The vehicle was also searched by a trained bomb-sniffing dog which yielded a positive result for the presence of explosive traces. Swabs of the vehicle's interior (u) were taken, and those samples were sent to the crime laboratory for further analysis. (S/OC/NF) (u)

Seizure of the individuals' property yielded the following: a 35mm camera, several personal telephone-style notebooks, back packs, airline tickets with immediate travel dates for destinations world-wide, Israeli passports (in some case, expired), a German passport, and thousands of dollars of cash. Student identification cards later believed to be false were also found. Oddly, equipment typically used in a moving company's daily duties was not found, including work gloves, blankets, straps, ropes, boxes, dollies, rollers, etc. Also not found was the video camera that T-1 observed at least one of the males using to film the explosion at WTC. (S/OC/NF) (u)

The five (5) detained Israeli Nationals, [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were interviewed subject to the limited scope of determining whether a video camera had been used, and, if so, where the video camera was to be located now. The results of the individual interviews yielded a wide array of discrepancies with respect to the whereabouts of each of the individuals as it applied to time period of the attack on the WTC. (S/OC/NF) (u)

[REDACTED] advised interviewing agents that after having arrived at his workplace, Urban Moving Systems, located at 3 18th Street, Weehawken, NJ, around 8:00 am, September 11, 2001, he received a telephone call informing him that the first explosion had occurred. [Note: the first explosion actually occurred at 8:45am that morning.] [REDACTED] and his [REDACTED] (NFI) got into a company van and departed the workplace for a Gulf gasoline service station. Then, [REDACTED] in the company of his friends, traveled to another location in order to take photographs of the WTC. (S/OC/NF) (u)

b7C

[REDACTED] also stated that he arrived at work (Urban Moving Systems) around 8:00am. Later, after [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] about the explosion at WTC, [REDACTED] looked on the Internet and went to the roof of the building to observe the WTC and take photographs. Then, [REDACTED] and friends (NFI) left the office and were caught in heavy traffic. Sometime between 10:00 am and Noon and while attempting to return to their office, (u)

[REDACTED] and his friends (NFI) stopped at a parking lot (adjacent to an apartment building) to take more photographs. (S/OC/NF) (u)

b6

[REDACTED] stated to one of the police officers after his arrest that the initial explosion occurred while he and the others were on the West Side Highway (Route 9A in New York City) traveling northbound toward the entrance of the Lincoln Tunnel.

[REDACTED] later informed FBI-NK that he had arrived at work around 8:20 am, and only learned of the crash into the WTC from a co-worker. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] got into a company van (the one they had used to travel from their residences in [REDACTED] NY to Weehawken, NJ) and traveled to a nearby parking lot to observe the WTC and take photographs.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were at the parking lot for approximately 10 minutes, sometime between 8:30 am and 9:00 am, but returned to Urban Moving Systems before 9:00 am. (S/OC/NF) (u)

Film obtained from the 35mm camera of one of the detainees was later developed and processed by FBI-NK. The photos depict [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] located at an observation point later determined to be the parking lot adjacent to the Doric Tower apartments located at 100 Manhattan Avenue in Union City, NJ. The three (3) Israelis, sitting together on top of a white van, are visibly smiling on at least three (3) of the photographs. (S/OC/NF) (u)

b6
b7C

The photographs also revealed that all five (5) Israelis later observed the WTC burning from a location on top of the roof of an Urban Moving Systems warehouse located adjacent to the Urban Moving Systems office location described herein.

(S/OC/NF) (u)

At this point, more interviews were conducted to verify the accuracy of their statements, as well as obtain any additional information concerning the video camera that was allegedly used by the Israelis. One such interviewee, T-3, claimed to have seen [REDACTED] in the Doric Towers on the afternoon prior to September 11, 2001. According to T-3,

b6

T-1, the source of the original information pertaining to the Israeli males, was re-interviewed at a later date. T-1 confirmed for interviewing agents that it was a video recording device, rather than a still camera, that the Israelis had used in filming the WTC from atop the van. In fact, T-1 recalled quite clearly that the camera was a small, hand-held unit, with a Liquid Crystal Display (LCD) screen which folded out and could be used in "panning." (S/OC/NF) (u)

In the early phases of the investigation, several other complaints surfaced concerning trucks and/or vans belonging to Urban Moving Systems that had been sighted in locations of significance with respect to the overall investigation of the hijacked flights on September 11, 2001. For instance, two (2) complaints were received which indicated that Urban Moving Systems vehicles had been spotted in the greater Boston, MA metropolitan area, one in Plymouth, MA and one in Nashua, NH. Additionally, an Urban Moving Systems truck (traveling westbound) had been stopped on September 10, 2001, near Montoursville, PA. At the time of the vehicle stop, the driver and passenger, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were identified as Israeli Nationals. Later, the same truck was stopped on September 12, 2001 while traveling eastbound toward New Jersey. (S/OC/NF) (u) which was subsequently corroborated by reviewing the photographs taken by the Israelis (themselves) that day. One such photograph depicts [REDACTED] using a squeegee to clean the windows of an Urban Moving Systems vehicle. Because the picture is chronologically one of the last taken that day, the gasoline had to have been purchased after the attack on the WTC. (~~S/OC/NF~~) (u)

A review of EZ-Pass records provided little by way of determining the exact location of the Israeli's vehicle (white van) during the actual time of the attack. According to EZ-Pass, the Urban Moving Systems van used by the Israelis to travel from Brooklyn, NY (location of their residences) to Weehawken, NJ on the morning of September 11, 2001 passed through the Brooklyn, NY entrance to the Brooklyn-Battery Tunnel at 7:48 am. (~~S/OC/NF~~) (u)

FBI-NK obtained the videotape of a local news helicopter crew which provided footage of the explosion beginning just minutes after the initial impact of the aircraft into the North Tower (Tower #1) of the WTC. A comparison of this videotape with the still photographs taken by the Israelis implied that the Israelis photographs were taken closer in time to the explosion of Tower #2 (South Tower) than to the initial impact into Tower #1. This comparison, albeit non-scientific, corroborated the three Israelis' claim that they departed Urban Moving Systems for the parking lot observation point after hearing of the initial explosion. (u)

Liaison with the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) resulted in FBI-NK obtaining a duplicate record of the metropolitan New York Air Traffic Control radar traffic records for the morning of September 11, 2001. By way of background, one of the earliest photographs taken by the Israelis from the parking lot observation point shows what is believed to be a local news helicopter hovering over the Hudson River between the parking lot and the WTC (this helicopter appeared in the foreground of the third photograph taken). The FAA's radar traffic records identify a helicopter, belonging to a local radio station AM 880, slowly traveling in a southerly direction down the Hudson River and then hovering from 8:50 am until 9:03 am, (the time of the crash into Tower #2), between Union City and the WTC on the morning of September 11. Although the results of this analysis verified that the Israelis were at the parking lot (u) (e)

According to T-1, it was the call from T-2, who is T-1's neighbor and close friend, which initially prompted T-1 to look out of the window towards the WTC. It was at that time that T-1 had also observed the Israelis atop the white van. Since T-1 believed that T-2's call came immediately after the first explosion at the WTC, FBI-NK attempted to obtain the toll records of T-2's residential telephone with a view toward determining the exact time of T-2's call. Unfortunately, electronic records of local calls such as that are not maintained by the local telephone service provider; thus, no electronic "time stamp" verifying T-1's observation of the Israelis could be obtained.

Shock Video: Who Shot New 9/11 Tapes?

SHOCK VIDEO: WHO SHOT NEW 9/11 TAPES?

Did Al Qaeda shoot recently released footage of 9/11 WTC attack v or was it someone else?

by Justin Raimondo

I shivered, a little, as I watched Lisa Meyers' report on NBC the other night:

<http://www.msnbc.com/news/1001433.asp?0cv=CB10>

"New and threatening messages have been received from Al Qaeda. There's a videotape aimed at American and Saudi Arabian rulers and another that includes what appears to be well-produced footage of the 9/11 attacks v raising still other questions."

This new 9/11 footage sure does raise a lot of other questions, first and foremost: who shot the video? It was posted on what is described as "a known Al-Qaeda website" last Wednesday, although it was taken down after a few days. Aside from the usual militaristic gymnastics by jihadi commandos, Meyers reports:

"The tape also contains what U.S. counterterror experts say may be never-before-broadcast video of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks on New York's World Trade Center shot from across the East River in Brooklyn. The FBI says it is familiar with the video, which was provided by a friendly bystander. But that raises the question v how did a tape that was not widely circulated end up on a known Al Qaeda site?"

It's sinister to contemplate. Video believed to have been in U.S. government hands somehow pops up on a website alleged to be an Al Qaeda mouthpiece, and U.S. government officials hold it up as a reason to cower in fear before the threat of another major terrorist attack on American soil. Meanwhile, the President avers that Iraq is the central arena in his "war on terrorism," and his supporters claim that we're battling them in the streets of Baghdad so we don't have to fight them in the streets of Boise v or whatever alliterative cliché first comes to mind.

<http://www.weeklystandard.com/Conte...03/425kcolb.asp>

The idea that Al Qaeda had additional agents in the area, who knew the attack was coming, would certainly explain the unflinching steadiness of the camera's eye as it recorded the terror of that moment. But instead of inventing additional elements and players, it's always best to stick with what we already know. So who else just happened to be videotaping the World Trade Center attack that day?

Hours after the terrorists struck, five people were arrested in New Jersey as they taped the WTC from their vantage point across the Hudson River in New Jersey. A witness identified only as "Maria" by ABC News said she saw:

<http://www.haaretzdaily.com/hasen/p...sID=0&listSrc=Y>
http://abcnews.go.com/sections/2020...van\_020621.html

"Three young men kneeling on the roof of a white van in the parking lot of her apartment building. 'They seemed to be taking a movie,' Maria said. The men were taking video or photos of themselves with the World Trade Center burning in the background, she said.

"What struck Maria were the expressions on the men's faces. 'They were like happy, you know - They didn't look shocked to me. I thought it was very strange,' she said."

Even stranger v it turned out the five were Israelis. When law enforcement swooped down on this crew, they found them in possession of $4,700 in cash, box cutters, and multiple foreign passports. Police dogs reacted as if the presence of explosives was indicated, and, as the Bergen County Record reported:
<http://www.forward.com/issues/2002/02.03.15/news2.html>

"Sources close to the investigation said they found other evidence linking the men to the bombing plot. 'There are maps of the city in the car with certain places highlighted,' the source said. 'It looked like they're hooked in with this. It looked like they knew what was going to happen when they were at Liberty State Park.'"

These guys were held for three months, much of the time in solitary confinement, and extensively interrogated. One refused to take a lie detector test for weeks, and then failed it. All five had been in the employ of Urban Moving Systems, of Weehawken, New Jersey, the company name on their van's registration.

Police raided the Urban Moving Systems warehouse 48 hours later, and carted away a lot of computer hard drives and other materials. The owner, one Dominik Suter, fled to Israel the next day. A few months later, Suter's name turned up on a list of terrorist suspects circulated by the FBI to European financial institutions.

<http://www.antiwar.com/justin/CI-08-02.pdf>

The apprehended Israelis claimed that they were merely "documenting" the day's events: police confiscated their photographic equipment, and whatever film they had taken. The new film shows the World Trade Center burning from the Brooklyn side of the East River, while the Urban Movers were filming from the vantage point of Liberty State Park, across the Hudson River in New Jersey. But whomever had foreknowledge of the attack on the World Trade Center could have taken that film v and Al Qaeda operatives are not the only possible suspects.

I have written at length about the five arrested Israelis in my new book, The Terror Enigma: 9/11 and the Israeli Connection, and I commend the attention of my readers to this modest little volume if they want to know more. I bring this up, not merely to plug my book, but to point out that we can't begin to understand the strange expropriation of this previously unknown footage outside the context provided by The Terror Enigma.

http://www.iuniverse.com/bookstore/...sugdz\_b6J9qGKNA

As I prove in my book, Al Qaeda did not carry out its plans for a major terrorist attack entirely undetected. The Israelis were hot on the trail of the 9/11 hijackers, and must have had some foreknowledge of what happened that fateful day.

<http://iraq-info.1accesshost.com/schrom.html>

Did they shoot the footage we are just now seeing, or was an Al Qaeda film team at the ready the moment the twin towers were hit? Readers of The Terror Enigma will understand how and why the former scenario is just as likely the latter.

As to how, in that case, the video passed into the hands of Al Qaeda's propagandists v it wouldn't be the first time the fruits of Israeli spying operations in the U.S. fell into the hands of America's enemies.

<http://www.freerepublic.com/focus/fr/576453/posts>

In any case, how this new 9/11 footage, previously known only to the FBI and a "friendly bystander," wound up in Al Qaeda's possession v or in the hands of a website claiming to represent them v is a mystery that the U.S. government seems quite uninterested in unraveling.

NOTES IN THE MARGIN

The U.S. is now completely enclosing Iraqi villages in barbed wire. A more appropriate metaphor for the occupation of Iraq couldn't be created by any novelist. Like the Israelis, the American occupiers are requiring an internal passport of all travelers coming into and going out of these villages. And, speaking of Israel, we are now doing to the Iraqis what Ariel Sharon and his ultra-rightist Likud party bloc have been dishing out to the Palestinians: arresting and detaining the relatives of "suspected guerrillas."

<http://www.nytimes.com/2003/12/07/i...&partner=GOOGLE>

<http://www.amnesty.nl/persberichten/NK-PB0090.shtml>

I can hear all the weeping and wailing on the part of the "liberal" wing of the War Party, crying out that this is hardly going to win

"hearts and minds." The point is that it isn't meant to: turning Iraq's villages into concentration camps is designed to humiliate, demean, and ultimately subjugate a proud people who refuse to be conquered. That's the real face of the American "liberation" v flat out ugly.

Bzzzzzt. Error in story.

Compare this statement:

"The tape also contains what U.S. counterterror experts say may be never-before-broadcast video of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks on New York's World Trade Center shot from across the East River in Brooklyn.
-----

With this statement:

-----
"Hours after the terrorists struck, five people were arrested in New Jersey as they taped the WTC from their vantage point across the Hudson River in New Jersey".
-----

We need to understand basic geography. Study a map of New York.

Brooklyn is to the EAST of Manhatten.

New Jersey is to the WEST of Manhatten.

Justin Raimondo is to the SOUTH of the planet Uranus.

2nd error

And I've been spreading this word around but no one seems to lister That video wasn't never before broadcast stuff. The professional quality angle has been seen before. I own a copy of it. Why, you ask Because it's on a dvd....put out by PBS of a Nova special.
This one in fact:

<http://images.amazon.com/images/P/B00006ADG4.01.LZZZZZZZ.jf>

It's from the first ten seconds of the damned program! NBC and CNP and the FBI can't get it right!

Yes, it must be a conspiracy! PBS is funded by the US Government via grants!

All this means is that Al Queda has access to Best Buy! Dear god someone stop this garbage!

It's my understanding that this "new" film was taken in Brooklyn.
Why they would also mention A TOTALLY SEPARATE ACCOUNT that occurred in New Jersey, is puzzling, but the have NOTHING TO DO WITH EACH OTHER.

So, what do they say is the reason it fell???

Anyone with a video camera in West Brooklyn, East NJ, or South Manhattan would have started recording that event once the news of the first plane hitting the tower became public knowledge.

Justin Raimondo is hawking his book "The Terror Enigma: 9/11 and the Israeli Connection". As to the reason why antiwar.com ignores all evidence to the contrary while truth and reality take a back seat -- anti-semitism is an ugly thing.

Supports couldn't take the strain as the columns were damaged. The dvd itself is more if you want to know the physical aspects as to why they collapsed more than the social/political.

From the August 2003 issue of Chronicles:

CHRONICLES INTELLIGENCE ASSESSMENT

The Terror Enigma: Israel and the September 11 Connection by Justin Raimondo

"Remember 9/11!" is the rallying cry of the War Party; what we are remembering, however, is a half-truth. It is time to draw the curtain on the largely ignored prehistory of September 11. Although Bush-administration officials deny that they had even a hint of what was to come, government agencies were literally awash with warnings from the intelligence services of other nations—including the British, the French, the Germans, the Russians, the Argentines, the Israelis, the Egyptians, the Moroccans, and the Jordanians.

The Israelis had warned us in August 2001, when they sent a delegation to Washington, handed over a list of 19 individuals in the United States whom they believed to be planning terrorist activities, and issued a nonspecific warning that a major terrorist attack was afoot. Yet there are indications that the Mossad knew about Muhammad Atta and his gang long before they let U.S. law enforcement in on the secret.

In the months before September 11, the Mossad had launched a major covert operation in the United States, involving hundreds of agents who not only kept a close watch on the terrorists but may have effectively blinded U.S. antiterrorism investigators to the activities of Al Qaeda in the United States. The evidence can be found in the U.S. government's own documents, leaked by its own employees, and in its public pronouncements before the decision was made to quash this story at any cost.

In March 2001, the National Counterintelligence Center—whose mandate empowers it to identify and assess possible threats to U.S. national security—posted the following warning on its website:

In the past six weeks, employees in federal office buildings located throughout the United States have reported suspicious activities connected with individuals representing themselves as foreign students selling or delivering artwork. Employees have observed both males and females attempting to bypass facility security and enter federal buildings. If challenged, the individuals state that they are delivering artwork from a studio in Miami, Florida, called Universal Art, Inc, or that they are art students and are looking for opinions regarding their work. These individuals have been described as aggressive. They attempt to engage employees in conversation rather than giving a sales pitch.

The NCIC warned that "these individuals have also gone to the private residences of senior federal officials under the guise of selling art." How they discovered the home-addresses of these senior officials, the NCIC did not say. At that point, two of the "students" had been arrested for immigration violations: The suspects possessed counterfeit immigration papers and identification. Later, many more would be picked up—nearly 200—and summarily deported to their country of origin: Israel.

The NCIC alert was the earliest premonition, some six months before the event, of September 11. It was the first known instance—and possibly the last—in which the "antiterrorism" apparatus set up by the U.S. government actually worked, to some extent. The NCIC ended its warning with what turned out to be an accurate assessment of the threat:

Other reporting indicates that there may be two groups involved, and they refer to themselves as "Israeli art students." One group has an apparently legitimate money-making goal while the second, perhaps a non-Israeli group, may have ties to a Middle Eastern Islamic fundamentalist group. Federal employees observing any activity similar to that described above should report their observations to appropriate security officials.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

DATE 8/3/2008 BY 60322 AUC/CPB/RNP

And report they did. Indeed, so many accounts of Israeli "art student" sightings poured in, from such a wide variety of federal agencies, that they were compiled in a secret government dossier. Their mode of operation was always the same: They would enter a U.S. federal facility, even some that were unmarked, and make their pitch, aggressively seeking entry through back doors and generally acting as if they were casing the joint. Since the nation's frontline fighters in the "War on Drugs" had, for some reason, attracted the particular attention of these "art students," this document, which only came to light after September 11, seems to have been compiled and written up by the internal security unit of the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA), in cooperation with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, sometime in summer 2001. (See "Suspicious Activities Involving Israeli Art Students.")

The incidents had occurred "since at least the beginning of 2000" and increased in November: After April 2001, "the number of reported incidents . . . declined[;] however, the geographic spread of the incidents" was extended "to Wisconsin, Oklahoma, and Los Angeles." In addition to visiting DEA offices, these "art students" also descended on a number of other law-enforcement and Department of Defense facilities across the continental United States. The majority of recorded incidents, however, seem to have occurred in the southern half of the country, with the epicenter of activity located in southern Florida. Investigators associated with the DEA's Office of Security Programs apparently became convinced that, as the report put it:

The nature of the individuals' conduct, combined with intelligence information and historical information regarding past incidents involving Israeli Organized Crime, leads us to believe the incidents may well be an organized intelligence gathering activity.'

These were no ordinary Israeli "tourists," as they claimed when confronted. While all Israelis must serve some time in the military, an unusually high proportion of these "students" were deployed in elite units. The DEA report lists name, rank, and serial number: Itay Simon, Marina Glickman, and Dilka Borenstein are all described as former members of Israeli military intelligence. Zeev Miller is identified as a "combat engineer," and Ofir Navron is a "bomb disposal expert." Aran Ofek, the son of a two-star Israeli general, was apprehended in Dallas. Taken together, their credentials are impressive: "intelligence officer," "electronic intercept operator," "special forces," "demolition/explosive ordnance expert."

A group of Israelis was picked up by the FBI after being spotted in Liberty State Park in Jersey City, New Jersey, laughing and high-fiving one another as the World Trade Center burned on the other side of the river. A story by Paulo Lima in the Bergen, New Jersey, Record (September 12, 2002) describes how five men—"Israeli tourists"—were picked up eight hours after the WTC attack, "carrying maps linking them to the blasts":

[S]ources close to the investigation said they found other evidence linking the men to the bombing plot.

There are maps of the city in the car with certain places highlighted," the source said. "It looked like they're hooked in with this. It looked like they knew what was going to happen when they were at Liberty State Park."

Lima reports that the five "tourists" had been picked up after local police received the following alert from the FBI:

Vehicle possibly related to New York terrorist attack. White, 2000 Chevrolet van with New Jersey registration with "Urban Moving Systems" sign on back seen at Liberty State Park, Jersey City, NJ, at the time of first impact of jetliner into World Trade Center. Three individuals with van were seen celebrating after initial impact and subsequent explosion. FBI Newark Field Office requests that, if the van is located, hold for prints and detain individuals.

These reports attracted little if any notice. Not long after, however, the whole operation began to surface in major media. On November 23, 2001, the Washington Post ran a story by John Mintz detailing how, along with the 1,000 or so Muslim Middle Easterners jailed in the Ashcroft sweep, 60 Israelis had been picked up and held, not just for routine visa violations, but in connection with the September 11 investigation. The Post's subhead read: "Government calls Several Cases 'of Special Interest,' Meaning Related to Post-Attacks Investigation."

According to Mintz's account, INS officials in Cleveland and St. Louis testified in court that these Israelis were "of special interest to the government"—putting them in the same category as hundreds of mostly Arab men rounded up by the feds since the attacks.

Over the next eight or nine months, the rest of the story would come out, though it would be obscured by denials and submerged by an oddly indifferent media. "It is rather strange," remarked Jane's Defense Intelligence Digest (March 13, 2002), "that the US media seems to be ignoring what may well be the most explosive story since the 11 September attacks—the alleged break-up of a major Israeli espionage operation in the USA." (The Post's story blandly assured readers that the Israeli detainees were "observing a time-honored tradition in their country—touring the world after their mandatory service in the Israeli military," although Mintz did note that "a number of them had served in counterterrorist units in Israel.")

On December 11, 2001, Fox News ran the first in a series of investigative reports that blew the whistle on a vast Israeli spy network operating on American soil—and openly posed the question of whether the Israelis had foreknowledge of September 11. According to Jane's, what is striking about Fox News reporter Carl Cameron's portrait of Israel's spy network in the U.S. is the sheer vastness of his subject. The broad scope of the operation, with its many fronts and activities conducted from coast to coast, had all the aspects of a major military campaign. In the months leading up to 9/11, Cameron claimed, Israel was waging a covert war against its principal ally and benefactor, the United States.

Over four nights, Cameron reported the myriad details of Israel's far-flung underground army in the United States. He noted that some of the 60 detainees arrested in the wake of September 11 were active Israeli military officers. Some had failed polygraph tests when they were asked about "surveillance activities against and in the United States."

Cameron showed how the Mossad had thoroughly penetrated top-secret communications systems. He cited veteran law-enforcement agents afraid for their jobs if they questioned Israel's role. What really caught the attention of viewers, however, was the following statement from his first broadcast:

There is no indication that the Israelis were involved in the 9-11 attacks, but investigators suspect that the Israelis may have gathered intelligence about the attacks in advance, and not shared it. A highly placed investigator said there are—quote—"tie-ins." But when asked for details, he flatly refused to describe them, saying—quote—"evidence linking these Israelis to 9-11 is classified. I cannot tell you about evidence that has been gathered. It's classified information."

Cameron's bombshell should have provoked a frenzy of media interest and calls for an official investigation. That no such call was ever made is a story in itself.

In the first part of his report, Cameron focuses on a single aspect of a multilayered Israeli intelligence operation that became increasingly visible in the months preceding September 11:

Numerous classified documents obtained by Fox News indicate that even prior to September 11, as many as 140 other Israelis had been detained or arrested in a secretive and sprawling investigation into suspected espionage by Israelis in the United States. Investigators from numerous government agencies are part of a working group that's been compiling evidence since the mid-90s. These documents detail hundreds of incidents in cities and towns across the country that investigators say—quote—"may well be an organized intelligence gathering activity."

These documents included a 60-page report compiled by a number of federal agencies. In the gray, matter-of-fact bureaucratese so typical of a government document, the "Israeli Art Student Papers"—leaked some months later—confirmed Cameron's contention that a nationwide underground apparatus of Israeli agents, centered in Florida and Texas, carried out extensive operations in the months leading up to September 11. Their targets included the DEA; the INS; the Federal Protective Service; the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms; the Federal Bureau of Investigation; a host of state and federal courthouses and other buildings; and military bases.

The leaked document describes in excruciating detail the doggedly persistent efforts of Israelis claiming to be "art students" to get into the offices and even the homes of federal law-enforcement agents and government officials.

A March 5, 2002, article in Le Monde by Sylvain Cypel was more specific: "More than a third of these 'students' claimed residence in Florida," and "at least five were intercepted in Hollywood [Florida], and two in Fort Lauderdale." Cypel points out the proximity of the two cities and reminds us that "at least 10 of the 19 terrorists of 9/11 were residing in Florida." Hollywood, a town of some 25,000 souls, north of Miami, was a major nexus of Israel's spy network and the Muslim terrorist cell responsible for September 11:

Four of the five members of the group that diverted American Airlines flight number 11—Mohammed Atta, Abdulaziz Al-Omari, Walid and Wail Al-Shehri, as well as one of the five terrorists of United flight 175, Marwan Al-Shehhi—resided all at various times in . . . Hollywood, Florida. As for Ahmed Fayez, Ahmed and Hamza Al-Ghamdi and Mohand Al-Shehri, who took over United flight 75, like Saïd Al-Ghamdi, Ahmed Al-Haznawi and Ahmed Al-Nami, of United flight 93 which crashed September 11 in Pennsylvania, and Nawaq Al-Hamzi, of AA flight 77 (crashed into the Pentagon), they all at one time resided at Delray Beach, in the north of Fort Lauderdale.

The most logical assumption is that the Israelis were engaged in a large-scale intelligence-gathering operation on Islamic terrorist cells in the United States.

Another important piece of the puzzle is found in an October 14, 2002, article by Oliver Schröm in the German weekly Die Zeit. Schröm writes:

Not until after the attacks of September 11 did the consequences of the spy ring become clear. Apparently the agents were not interested in military or industrial facilities, but were shadowing a number of suspects, who were later involved in the terrorist attacks against the U.S. According to a report of the French intelligence agency that Die Zeit examined, "according to the FBI, Arab terrorists and suspected terror cells lived in Phoenix, Arizona, as well as in Miami and Hollywood, Florida from December 2000 to April 2001 in direct proximity to the Israeli spy cells."

The Mossad was particularly interested in Muhammad Atta, the terrorist leader, and Marwan al-Shehi, who lived in Hollywood, Florida. Die Zeit reports that the Mossad was watching the terrorist leader and his chief accomplices very closely:

Everything indicates that the terrorists were constantly observed by the Israelis. The chief Israeli agent was staying right near the post office where the terrorists had a mailbox. The Mossad also had its sights on Atta's accomplice Khalid al-Midhar, with whom the CIA was also familiar, but allowed to run free.

The title of the Die Zeit piece—"Next Door to Mohammed Atta"—may be a bit of an overstatement, however. As Schröm writes:

[Muhammad Atta and Marwan al-Shehi] lived in Hamburg before they settled in Hollywood, Florida[,] in order to plan the attacks. A Mossad team was also operating in the same town. The leader, Hanan Serfati, had rented several dwellings. "One of Serfati's apartments was located on the corner of 701st St. and 21st Ave. [sic] in Hollywood, right near the apartment of Atta and al-Shehi," French intelligence reported later.

There is just one problem: There is no 701st Street and 21st Avenue in Hollywood, Florida. Serfati's rental was at 701 South 21st Street, about a half-mile from Atta's 1818 Jackson Street address. Serfati rented several apartments in the area, however, and one could easily have been "next door to Mohammed Atta" and his confederates, who moved around quite a bit. In addition, the geographical congruity of the Israeli "art students" and the hijacking conspirators was not limited to South Florida, as John Sugg has pointed out in a March 20, 2002, piece for the Weekly Planet:

Many of the apparent operatives had set up shop at addresses only stones' throws from Arabs in San Diego, Little Rock, Irving, Texas, and in South Florida. The Planet also has obtained a watch list of mostly Arabs under scrutiny by the U.S. government. The addresses of many correspond to the specific areas where the Israelis established bases.

While the Israelis were closely observing Atta and his friends, they did not inform the U.S. government what they were up to until August 2001: Der Spiegel reported (October 1, 2002) that they handed over a list of 19 terrorist suspects, with at least four of the hijackers on it, "a few weeks before" September 11, but the federal government says that the warning was for attacks "outside the United States."

The warning was nonspecific, indicating only that these were potential terrorists. And there are other discrepancies that cloud the picture of Israeli cooperation in this matter. If the Israelis had decided in August to come clean with the information they had, why were federal agents still arresting and detaining our "partners" in the "War on Terrorism" in late November and early December?
